Training and Education

Training & Education

The ICC Training and Education programme was launched in 2021 and is designed to provide educational resources and training opportunities through ICC-certified pathways to develop more coaches, umpires, scorers and pitch curators around the world.

In partnership with Members, the ICC is committed to delivering a full range of courses to those interested in starting or furthering their cricket journey.

Level 1 – How to become qualified

All of these need to be satisfied in order to become accredited as an ICC Level 1 Coach and receive a certificate:

Successful completion of the ICC Foundation Certificate

- 100% online

Successful completion of the ICC Coaching Course Level 1 online learning

- Three modules (Batting, Bowling, Fielding/Wicketkeeping) and assessments

Successful completion of the ICC Coaching Course Level 1 practical assessment

- Subject to assessment and 'passed' by an ICC Tutor

ICC Foundation Certificate

The first step for aspiring coaches is to undertake the ICC Coaching Foundation Certificate – a course which equips participants with the knowledge necessary to support qualified coaches deliver fun-first experiences for new and beginner participants.

The course doesn't require any prior knowledge of the game, and introduces learners to the basic fundamentals of cricket, and what it takes to facilitate cricket sessions.

The ICC Coaching Foundation Certificate is entirely self-paced, meaning it can be done as fast or as slow as the learner wants, and is delivered entirely online.

Six modules make up the ICC Foundation Certificate:

- The Game,
- Safety & Inclusion,
- The Participants,
- The Coach,
- Effective Training Sessions
- Game Day.

Assessments are available at the end of each module, and require the aspiring coach to hit the pass mark of 75% before progressing to the next module. Once all six modules and assessments have been completed, a certificate of completion will be issued

ICC Coaching Course Level 1

This course equips participants with the technical knowledge required to deliver cricket sessions to new and beginner participants.

In order to study this course, participants will need to have successfully passed the ICC Coaching Foundation Certificate.

The ICC Coaching Course Level 1 is split into three components, and is delivered through online and in-person learning:

- Online learning (three modules)
